

FINANCIAL & RENTAL RELIEF DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The most severe impacts stemming from the COVID-19 pandemic fell upon the poorest and most vulnerable members of our community. Already struggling in our extremely high-cost region, these residents suffered the brunt of job losses, temporary workplace closures or reduced hours during the pandemic - pushing many into financial crisis and towards the edge of homelessness.

That's why Destination: Home, Sacred Heart Community Service and a large coalition of partners came together to deliver critical financial aid to those in-need through the existing countywide Homelessness Prevention System and several special time-limited assistance programs.

During the pandemic, this coordinated financial and rental relief effort provided:

$85.4 Million in Rental & Financial Assistance to 19,695 Low-Income Households in Need

Data includes households served by the Santa Clara County Homelessness Prevention System during the pandemic

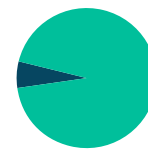

THE HOUSEHOLDS WE SERVED

82%
Extremely Low Income
(make < 30% of the area median income)

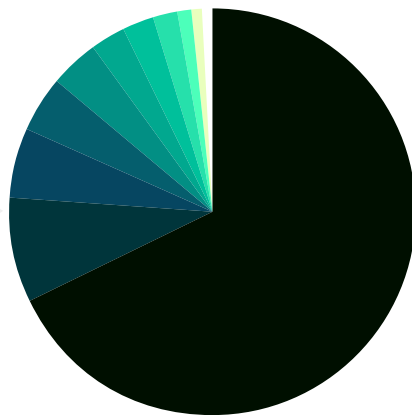

64%
Included Children

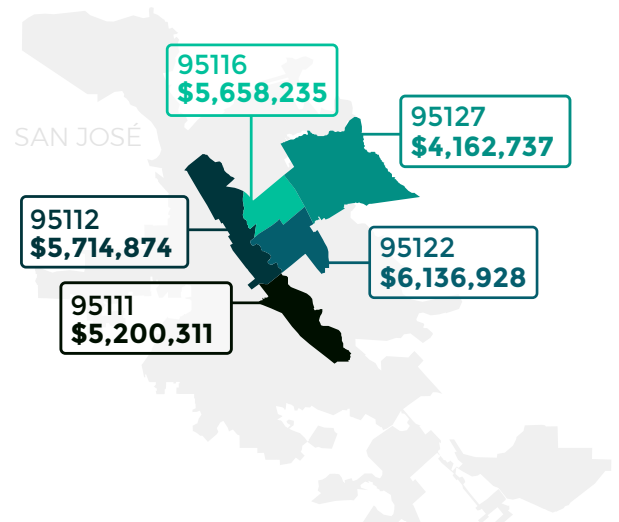

94%
Identified as People of Color

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE DISTRIBUTED BY CITY

San Jose	$55,965,243
Sunnyvale	$6,803,785
Santa Clara	$4,626,687
Gilroy	$3,592,624
Mountain View	$3,137,878
Milpitas	$2,269,389
Morgan Hill	$2,031,687
Campbell	$1,812,038
Palo Alto	$946,671
Los Gatos	$881,703
San Martin	$595,967
Cupertino	$585,054

1/3 OF THE FUNDING WENT INTO FIVE HIGHLY-IMPACTED EAST SAN JOSE ZIP CODES

This community-wide financial and rental relief effort was a unique collaboration between dozens of public and private partners, and a part of Silicon Valley Strong.

SILICON VALLEY STRONG FUND
COMMUNITY CONQUERING COVID-19

We are grateful to the many public, private, philanthropic and nonprofit partners who made it possible to assist those who had been severely impacted by this unprecedented crisis.

Our deepest thanks goes to the dozens of donors who generously contributed to our COVID-19 relief efforts:

We are also thankful for the nonprofit partners who were instrumental in helping us reach and serve vulnerable residents throughout our community:

Destination: Home is a public-private partnership ending homelessness in Silicon Valley. For more information, please visit: DestinationHomeSV.org