Have you ever asked...

- What is the Community Plan to End Homelessness?
- What is supportive housing, and how does it work?
- How do we both prevent and end homelessness in San Jose?
- Where are new housing developments moving forward? What will they be like?
- How will this new housing be an asset for our neighborhoods?

If you are asking these and other questions on homelessness and housing, then this conversation is for you. Join us to learn about our community work to address homelessness, find answers to your questions, and learn how you can get involved.
